

Early Childhood Learning Center Director, Michele Leaman, received her Bachelor's Degree in Human Services/Child Development and a Master's Degree in Child Advocacy and Welfare, along with a Montessori certification. Michele's has worked at early childhood learning centers as an educator/School Director and Senior Director of Education for over 30 years. Previous to her extensive experience in education, she worked as a Quality Assurance Inspector for the State of New Jersey Department of Children and Families.

Michele Leaman

